Objectives - After Attending This Program You Should Be Able To

1. Enhance Clinical Competence in Addressing Health Disparities Among Latino Populations. Participants will be able to identify and implement evidence-based clinical practices that effectively address prevalent health disparities within Latino communities. This includes understanding culturally specific health challenges and integrating culturally competent care strategies to improve patient outcomes
2. Foster Interdisciplinary Collaboration to Improve Healthcare Delivery. Participants will learn to collaborate across various healthcare disciplines to design and implement integrated care models that address the multifaceted needs of Latino patients. Emphasis will be placed on building networks that bridge gaps between clinical practice, community health initiatives, and educational programs to enhance overall healthcare delivery.
- 3.
