Hispanic Leadership Development Fellowship

About HLDF

The Hispanic Leadership Development Fellowship Program is funded by the US Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Office of Minority Health.

The fellowship offers current graduate students and recent graduates a paid 9-month leadership opportunity to prepare for career opportunities within public health agencies and increase awareness and competency in health equity knowledge and practice.

The program pairs each fellow with an HHS agency in the DC/Metro area.

Purpose

The program will assist HHS in increasing its overall representation of Hispanics within the department, especially in key executive leadership positions, by cultivating an interest in working for the federal government.

Qualifications

- Current master's level student or have a graduation date from a master's program within two years.
- Strong interest in working in HHS or its regional offices.
- Must be able to relocate to Washington, DC.
- Must be eligible to work in the US.
- Must be a current NHMA Member.

Program Components

- Fellows will receive support from the NHMA Staff, host site mentors, and personal NHMA mentors.
- Fellows will be required to participate in virtual and experiential learning activities throughout the 9-month program.
- Fellows will be paid a salary of $52,500 for 9 months.
- Health insurance will be provided during the fellowship duration.
- Fellows will be responsible for securing housing by Sept. 1.
- Fellows may have the opportunity to present their work at their Host Site placements & final projects to OMH and NHMA Leadership.
